SUMMER VACATION

June 29, 2025

Saints. Peter And Paul, Apostles
Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

PREP NEWS!

I realize that the school year has just ended, but the opening of the PREP program will be here before you know it.

This year I have decided to have CRE (Coordinator of Religious Education) at St. Rose of Lima that will oversee just our program instead of sharing a DRE with Our Lady of Charity. I sincerely thank Mrs. Eileen Wilson for all her hard work going back and forth between the two parishes. Mrs. Wilson will continue to be the DRE at Our Lady of Charity.

I am pleased to announce that Mrs. Marianne Jefferis has accepted the position of CRE here at St. Rose. Mrs. Jefferis is probably familiar to many of you. You can often find her at the noon Mass on Sunday with her family. Marianne is also a former St. Rose PREP teacher and is a kindergarten teacher for the Ridley School District.

Please join me in wishing her well as she begins to serve our parish children.

Rev. James E. Goerner

Pastor
